

ECONOMIC EXPERTISE IN COURT

Assessments
from History and Practice

15 September 2017

Unil

UNIL | Université de Lausanne

Centre Walras Pareto

Château de Dorigny
University of Lausanne

9:30 | Introduction

09:45 | NICOLA GIOCOLI |

University of Pisa

Rejected! Antitrust economists as expert witnesses in the post-Daubert world

11:00 | CLÉO CHASSONNERY-ZAÏGOUCHE |

University of Lausanne

Witnessing for human capital theory: The early reception of wage decomposition methods in the US courtrooms

13:30 | HARRO MAAS |

University of Lausanne

Assessing environmental damage: the case of Exxon Valdez

14:30 | FRANCO TARONI |

University of Lausanne

Probability and inference in forensic science

15:45 | ALAIN MARCIANO |

University of Montpellier

Justice without romance. The history of the economic analyses of judges' behaviour

Info
harro.maas@unil.ch
cleo.chassonnery-zaigouche@unil.ch