

A Political Economy of Power

Ordoliberalism in Context, 1932-1950

In A Political Economy of Power, Raphaël Fèvre retraces the intellectual history of ordoliberalism, focusing on the works of its main representatives Walter Eucken and Wilhelm Röpke, together with the contributions of Franz Böhm, Alexander Rüstow, Leonhard Miksch, and Friedrich Lutz. A Political Economy of Power provides a contextualized and interdisciplinary study of ordoliberalism—one of the most influential intellectual projects of the second half of the twentieth century in Europe.
