Towards an alternative history of banking internationalization: Switzerland and global networks (19th-20th centuries)

Université de Lausanne, Anthropole, salle 3148

09h30-09h40

Introduction

Maria Stella Chiaruttini (Universität Wien):
The internationalisation of Piedmontese finance during the Risorgimento

Marco Molteni (University of Oxford):
Opening the black box of foreign correspondent banking: the case of Banca Commerciale Italiana in the 20th century

Comment by Malik Mazbouri and discussion

11h10-12h20

Alexis Drach (Université Paris 8):
Cooperation in banking internationalization: the case of European banking clubs

Emmanuel Mourlon-Druol (European University Institute):
Mapping International and national banking centres since the 1970s

Comment by Thibaud Giddey and discussion

14h00-14h45

Pedro Araujo (Université de Fribourg):
Studying International Bankers: A Socio-historical and Contemporary Perspective

Comment by Stéphanie Ginalski and discussion

15h05-16h15

Arthur Michelet (Université de Lausanne):
Adapting strategies or changing banking models? Analysing the multinationalisation of Swiss big banks (1966–2000)

Pietro Nosetti (chercheur indépendant):
La dimension internationale du secteur bancaire tessinois au XIX et XX siècles

Comment by Sandra Bott and discussion

16h15-16h30

Concluding remarks

Organisation: Sandra Bott, Thibaud Giddey, Malik Mazbouri
Contact: thibaud.giddey@unil.ch